Sensational Stephan Malczewski turned in a double hat trick with a six-goal performance to lead the streaking Red Wings to their second victory this season.

Malczewski was not alone in scoring column as Mike Anderson rapped in four goals and Bobby Burnett added three more. Eddie Feist and Steve Dorney each contributed one goal.

STILL HIGH in the clouds from their one-sided victory, the Red Wings were brought back to earth the following day when Burbank handed the local Pee Wee division team a 10-0 licking.

An unassisted goal by Feist in the final period brought the Red Wings back on the winning track against West Covina and gave Torrance a 4-3 triumph. Malczewski kept the locals in the game until Feist's goal with a hat trick.

DESPITE A 54-save effort by Tim Bullock, the Torrance Bruins dropped a 17-3 Bantam division duke to Burbank. Bullock knocked down 24 shots in the first period alone.

The first Bruin goal was credited to Jim Ford with an assist by Tim Coffin from Doug Dorney. Dorney pushed in the second goal for Torrance and Robert Bramlett was responsible for the third Bruin tally.

ANOTHER DEFEAT was stacked up against Torrance when the Bruins failed to come up with enough men against Paramount, thereby losing the contest on a forfeit.

Hoping to solve a lack-of-depth situation, Bruin coach Bob Edwards has added Craig BenBen, who just completed a season of Pop Warner football, and Robert Vaughn.

A FORFEIT gave Torrance one win to match the defeat when Tarzana failed to show for a scheduled encounter with the Maple Leafs.
 In upcoming action, the Red

Wings will meet Paramount at 6 p.m. Saturday on the Olympic Ice Arena floor. Practice sessions for Torrance teams are set for tomorrow evening and Sunday morning at the Olympic Arena on Western Avenue in Torrance.

MEMBERS OF THE Torrance OMHA will attend a Los Angeles Blades game on Wednesday, Dec. 11, when the professionals tangle with Vancouver in the Sports Arena.
